

WHAT DO YOU WANT THEM TO BECOME?

Proverbs 23:26, "My son, give me thine heart."

Malachi 4:6, "And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse."

Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it."

1 - Troubled Hearts

The heart of every problem is a problem in the heart.

2 - Searching Hearts

Whoever has the child's heart will eventually have his life and loyalty.

3 - Safe Hearts

Children want their parents to have their hearts.

4 - Connected Heart

The Bible gives us an ideal picture of a parent-child relationship.

5 - Struggling Hearts

(1) The heart can be lost.

(2) The heart can be hardened.

(3) The heart can be stolen.

6 - The Keepers Of Their Child's Heart

Only the heart can keep the heart.

A parent needs to take whatever steps necessary to regain a child's heart.
